The Future Financial Leadership Program is one of the Financial Academy's flagship programs, designed to develop leadership capabilities across the financial sector in alignment with Saudi Vision 2030 and the Financial Sector Development Program. It strengthens strategic thinking, understanding of future trends, scenario planning, and effective decision-making in dynamic business environments. Delivered with experienced faculty in leadership and executive development, the program combines leadership discussions, group coaching, and practical applications to build self-leadership, collaboration, influence, change leadership, and innovation.

Program Objectives

- Analyze future trends and build a long-term strategic perspective.
- Strengthen self-leadership under pressure and uncertainty.
- Enhance collaboration, influence, and trust to achieve shared goals.
- Lead change and turn organizational challenges into innovation.

Target Audience

- Mid-level and senior managers in the financial sector.
- Executives leading teams and strategic initiatives.

Learning Outcomes

- Understand future developments and build multiple strategic scenarios.
- Lead with confidence under pressure and uncertainty.
- Build influence, collaboration, and trust across teams and functions.
- Lead change and turn challenges into opportunities for innovation.
- Leave with a personal leadership action plan and a 90-day implementation commitment.
